

#014 Reject accomplices to failure

Dear boys,

Today I'm gonna explain to us some of the things we need to reject in order to thrive in life

- Reject to be a corporate slave

Being a corporate slave does you a lot of harm than good. It drains all your energy leaving you feeling tired, frustrated, unfulfilled, uninspired and empty. You never have the freedom to do the things that you want to do in life and at some point, you may end up leading a life you never dreamt of.

Sometimes you may have ideas which you feel are good but your boss who wants you to keep on working for him may dismiss or not like them at all. I'm not saying our bosses are evil but most of them are never supportive.

Sometimes you work so hard and even add extra hours to perform your duties and give your best but your salary is not just enough and you wonder why you never get on top of your game yet you seem to be doing more.

Your friends who are entrepreneurs or business men tend to have all their shit together. They are able to afford a quality lifestyle that you can only dream of. They are working less hours in a week and are making lots of money yet you are tied in some company working from 9 to 5 trying to make a living.

It's high time you start thinking of ways you can set yourself free from corporate slavery. Find something or side hustles that can generate you good amount of income so that you can live the life you've always dreamt of all your life.

- Reject degeneracy

Being a degenerate means you've lost the physical, mental, or moral qualities considered normal and desirable. Some of the degenerate acts include stealing, raping, promoting violence and etc. So gentlemen, I know most of you are aware of the degenerate acts, so what's my advice? Reject them and stay focused on the right things in life.

- Reject modernity

It's for our own good. Modernity is kinda messed up based on the things it is promoting to us which some aren't beneficial to us at all. It is wiping out the good, quality and beneficial stuff that tradition had built and instilled in us starting from our forefathers.

Many men and women today would rather embrace being promiscuous, party all their lives, live for money, and do anything for power than raise a family, embrace tribe hood, fight for justice, get in marriage, live in honor and seek Jesus; all this taking place because modernity says so.

Fellas, lets reject modernity and embrace tradition and I doubt if we will ever go wrong.

- Reject jealous and loser friends

It's very important to have quality friends around you, who can uplift you, improve your life, support and build you like never before; instead of having jealous and loser friends whose job is to discourage and tell you how you can't succeed because they never succeeded or because they don't want you to be on top of your game. Have a social network of strong powerful friends and people who are happy when you rise and conquer the world than those who won't hesitate to stab you in the back if the opportunity comes.

So show the jealous and loser friends the exit door and you'll surely be safe.

- Reject normalizing being fat and weak

This is the point where I usually say, hit the gym and fix your body so as to improve your health and mental wellbeing. For with a strong mental capacity, you tend to achieve more in life and with much achieved, life makes sense and you become more fulfilled.

#rejectweakness #hitthegym #foryourowngood

- Reject settling for less than you deserve

It's high time you understood your worth and started to live up to your full potential. Don't allow or tolerate any disrespect of any kind from anybody, always be ready to walk away and never undermine yourself.

Remember, only you know what you can do and are made of and only you can get yourself on top of your game. So, settle for what you deserve, be it a woman, job, life and relationships. It's all up to you to decide.

- Reject hoes

Settle for what you deserve, remember hoes belong to the streets while quality, virtuous, and sensible women belong to you my G. If you are a truly high value man or are working on being one, you deserve better son. So reject em' hoes and go for the best.
